THE PATH OF LEADERSHIP GIVING

Giving at a leadership level impacts lives and inspires others to follow your example.

UNITED WAY of Southwestern Pennsylvania

UNITED WAY AS YOUR PARTNER IN GIVING BACK.

Since 1927, generous individuals in our area have relied on United Way of Southwestern Pennsylvania as a philanthropic guide and partner in creating the greatest good. By giving to United Way, you uplift the neighborhoods where you live and work.

United Way earns your trust by identifying and investing in innovative solutions and organizing collaborative efforts so we can act rapidly and purposefully. We lead by listening, attuned to the needs of the community and informed by data, and invest to fortify our agency partners and change lives.

By uniting our vast and diverse community of donors, volunteers, companies and philanthropies, we maximize our collective impact. Our donors participate in grant application reviews, widening the circle of people who understand the needs of our region.

As a leadership donor, you demonstrate a true commitment to helping our neighbors, strengthening our community and setting a powerful example of how to give back and make a difference.

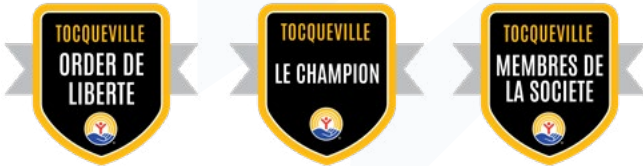

LEADERSHIP DONORS STAND AT THE FOREFRONT OF LASTING CHANGE.

Our community is only as strong as those who lead the way. United Way has created a philanthropic pathway to inspire giving and ensure that your contributions make the greatest impact possible, especially as your ability to give increases. As a leadership donor, you make your mark on our community and create opportunities for others to succeed and live in dignity.

What our Leadership Donors are saying:

“As Tocqueville donors, we understand the power of our financial support, but there is more that we can do. We can ask others to join with us and widen the network with an invitation to give to United Way.”

—*Marc and Tanya Williams,
Tocqueville Society members*

“The overall level of organization, communication, and transparency across programs and leaderships has been very impressive.... Members of Bridges Society organically support each other and utilize their shared networks and expertise to continually shape and grow the organization’s programs.”

—*Michael Iverson,
Bridges Society Member*

“United Way and Women United spoke to me in such a tremendous way. Women need to support women, unconditionally. If I can help even just one person in this lifetime to be successful and happy without struggle, it is a success to me.”
